ESOTERIC AND ENERGY WORK DISCLAIMER AND RELEASE

There is no great “esoteric secret” that we can teach you. No one can sell you the knowledge of how to become a medium within a specified and limited time, or develop you by a series of “lessons.” It is, in all cases, a matter of time, and frequently of painstaking and long-continued investigation, of experimental research, of steady training, of meditation; and therefore time and patience are absolutely necessary. You will be required to be observant, calm, rational, persistent, dedicated and affirmative, remembering that it is single-minded perseverance that does it.

Before you start sitting for development you should read the best books on esoteric and energy studies you can find, so that you may have a good general knowledge of, and profit by, the experience and advice of others, and be prepared for the trials and disappointments that you will in all probability have to meet. While esoteric and energy work has its privileges and delights, it also has its duties and responsibilities. You should consider whether you are prepared to face, the difficulties; to work and wait; to persevere in spite of derision and isolation on this side and the possible attacks of the “dwellers on the threshold” on the other. Be prepared to know whether you will suffer and be strong, and consecrate your energies in an altruistic spirit to the Cause of Truth and Progress in the service of enlightened spirits for the good of Humanity. If you are ready to do this and endure, we wish you God-speed and the wise guidance of true and kindly spirit teachers, and we trust that you will find our advice of service to you in your studies.
